CITY LINK: COPENHAGEN - HAMBURG

The 29th – 30th of November 2012, Givrum.nu (DK) will host a meet-up in Hamburg where 50 project makers from Copenhagen will visit user-driven projects in Hamburg and kick-start a bottom-up city-development process in the fantastic Oberhafen area.

With this cultural collaboration – CITY LINK – we are taking the first steps in forming a cultural connection between the two cities – now and in the future!
This is a great opportunity to meet new people, get inspired and take part in an international network of grassroots projects.

If you have a project you would like to showcase or you have thoughts and ideas about Oberhafen - please join in and shape the future of your city! Party with us on Thursday 29th and attend our workshop on Friday 30th of November.

The 19th – 20th of December 2012 you are invited to Copenhagen to further establish collaborations, take part in the launch of the website for City Link and see different projects in Copenhagen. The trip by bus and accommodation is free.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE?

- Send a short description of yourself and a maybe a projects of yours - pictures and videos are very welcome!
- Send it to: info@givrum.nu
- Deadline: Tuesday the 20th of November 2012
- And put a big X in your calendar on the 29th - 30th of November + 19th - 20th of December 2012

WE WILL TAKE CARE OF:

- Transport of the participants with bus and accommodation in Copenhagen for free
- A website where the participating projects are presented
- An application to take care of fundings for a further collaboration in 2013

Follow the projects on Facebook/givrum.nu or send an e-mail to info@givrum.nu for more information.

2012

Do you want to make a festival in Hamburg in 2014?

Communities, grassroots organizations, project makers and artists around the world enable more and more people in our cities. In September 2014, you will be able to be a part of a festival in Hamburg, where we pay tribute to the people and projects that contribute to sustainable cities.

Come to the kick-off meeting on 27 and 28 October in Oberhafen
Address: LIVING ART
Stockmeyer Str. 43
20457 Hamburg

You can participate if you are interested in helping with organizing, fundraising, PR, booking etc. or if you are working with something that should be at the festival. Participants will be a mix of people from Hamburg and Copenhagen.

About City Link

Since 2012, the cultural collaboration City Link has united Copenhagen and Hamburg about art, culture and user-driven urban development. There have been trips, art exhibitions and workshops and now we unite the good people in the cities and make a festival together.
